Dear Amy,

What's going on? Have you moved into your new home yet? What are you doing for Christmas?

Carol's kids will be here Christmas Eve and we are going to South Haven Christmas day. We will stay over night at my parent's house and leave for New Orleans early Saturday morning. Tom is planning to drive also, so we will have 2 cars down there. I am looking forward to roaming around the countryside during the day. Otherwise, I don't have a plan for what we are going to do. We will have to buy a paper when we get there to find out what to see and do.

We still have no snow here. It gets below freezing at night once in while, but not during the day.

We rented good movie - "The Opposite of Sex". It stars Lisa Kudrow, Christina Ricci, Lyle Lovette and some lesser knowns. It is a very smart comedy. We watched it one night and again the next day. Saw "The Horse Whisperer" last night and hated it. Carol thought it was OK. Also saw "A Bug's Life". Boring. Not as good as "Toy Story".

It is still not too late for you to join us for Christmas. But you would either have to find a place to stay or share a room with Carol and me. Our room has 2 beds.

Love, Dad
