

November 23, 2000

Dear Family,

Happy Thanksgiving! And have a happy birthday, Cindy and Laura. We are having Thanksgiving dinner at Carol's sister's house in Holt tomorrow.

We missed all the snow! We have about 2 inches. But it is cold.

Carol did not get the school counselor job, but she is happy with the job at Haslett Schools. The only complaint so far is that she doesn't have enough to do.

Are you enjoying The Election that Never Ends? We should have put my Electronic Democracy in place long ago. This country is very clever about figuring out how to do things, but then we put up with a governmental system that was created over 200 years ago, when there was no telephone, telegraph, trains or toilet paper. I think the people that are most protective of the Constitution are the gun owners, because they are afraid that if it was up to the people, they wouldn't be allowed to keep their arsenals.

Sorry to hear about Eva Mae, Deb and Jerry.

Amy and Tom both plan to come home for Christmas. I just got a card from Tom dated November 12. He is on a Scientology cruise ship in the Carribean, visiting the islands of St. Kitts, Antigua, St. Barts, and Tortola. Can't be all bad. He said he wouldn't be back until late November.

Steve