Amy,

Keep the $150. It was not for travel, it was for whatever. It was because that is what Carol is spending on her kids, grandkids, etc.

I heard from Tom yesterday. He has e-mail! His e-mail and my reply are below.

I not only don't need anything, I don't want anything. That you could afford, anyway. As for Carol, I don't even know what I am going to get her. I'm going to the mall tonight and hoping for inspiration. So far I got her a strap for her binoculars and a humidometer.

But I will ask her.
