

January 24, 2002

So, should I reserve tickets?

It starts at 7:30, so it should be over by 10:00.
Anyway, we can leave when we want.

Pretty boring here too. I finished my routine stuff
By 8:30. But I have been working on my procedures Project plan, preparing "procedure identification and assignment" sheets for each position. Any procedures that have already been written are listed. The Managers will add any other procedures and assign
Each to a staff member.

Ron has read my proposal, but hasn't presented it to Anne yet. He thinks she will buy it.

It depends on what time it starts and how long you think it will last. If you want to go I am willing to go with you as long as we are home by 11:00. I also will have to have enough time to wash my hair before we go. Let me know what you decide.

I am having a pretty boring day again. Jean is Out sick with the flu. How is your day going?

Wanna go see Arlo's daughter perform at the Creole Gallery tonight? She does folk/rock. It is $10 per person.