Kelli and Tom,

I got the picture of Witni and printed it off. She is cute! Only 11 years old, huh?

Also got your new travel plan.

We (the siblings) had a good time in Florida. Saw lots of birds and alligators. Had a beer on Ocean Blvd in Miami Beach. In Florida City, which is just north of Everglades National Park, we drove around and looked at farms growing green beans, tomatoes, zucchini, avocados, papaya. I'll send pictures.

We don't want anything for Christmas. Haven't got room for the stuff we've got. We'll have to get rid of some of it so we have room for visitors.
