We spent last weekend (Friday-Sunday) in Ludington. We took our two oldest grandchildren, Alick and Ashtyn, who are 11 and 8 (just a guess). Our motel had an outdoor heated swimming pool with a "spa", so we spent a lot of time there. We had our canoe, but never took it off the car. Too windy. We played in the dunes and on the beach a bit, and we fished for crawfish among the rocks in the river in Ludington State Park. I bought a pack of little hooks and leaders, looped the leaders around the end of a stick, put a minnow on the hook. We caught about a dozen crawfish and Ashtyn caught what was probably a rock bass. I remember fishing for crawfish among the rocks along the south beach pier in South Haven long ago, only we didn't have hooks. We just tied the minnow to a string.
