Tom and Kelli,

Boulder this summer is not out of the question. Let me know when you are going. Yes, part of the reason Amy moved was the social life. But that is also where she works. Her new condo has more room and is in walking distance of a few stores.

What is Kelli's new job?

We've been here almost a week, and Carol has yet to get in the water.

I booked another hike for tomorrow. This one goes into the rain forest to find some waterfalls. Not as long and strenuous as the crater hike Friday. It's sad when you have to rent people to play with.

Love, Dad
