Helen,

It did turn out to be a Yahoo screw-up. And I can just post website again. In fact, it is up again but under the wrong address. It is under www.geocities.com/steve\_harry. I'm trying to get Yahoo to put it back under mersdirt.com.

I am sending MERS a FOIA request to get records of all the payments they've made to Hardy Hasenfuss. That should make a good story. Somebody told me once that he charged $30 thousand for that one day staff retreat he conducted.

I'm glad Sela is better. What was wrong with her?

Yes, I've been collecting signatures to ban dove hunting, also working in the central office. On Saturday, I collected 77 signatures in 2 hours from tailgaters at MSU. I should have been doing that all season.
