

November 27, 2004

Helen,

Sorry your mother is still sick.

I don't think I am strongly re-focused yet. I'm wasting a lot of time lately - sleeping in, watching TV. The Save the Doves effort is looking like a lost cause. I don't think we can get enough signatures by March 1, so why waste time on it.

Carol is going to Las Vegas next week for 3 days of training in Neuromodulation Technique. I'm not going with her, so I'll be out all night running around, partying, etc.

Steve