Hi Ashtyn,

I went out and ran 4 miles this morning. It's nice to have some warmer weather - 20 degrees rather than 0. Friday it is supposed to be in the high 40s, warm enough to wash the car.

Grandma and I hope to take a trip south this winter, probably in February. Maybe we will fly to Florida, rent a car, and wander around. There is a spot near the north edge of Everglades National Park where you can go out on a boardwalk and see alligators, turtles, and lots of water birds. I was there a couple years ago with my brother and 3 sisters. That was our first annual "sibling trip". This last summer the 5 of us went up north in Michigan and I showed them the Sleeping Bear Dunes and some other of my favorite spots.
