Ash,

The worst of the weather bypassed us here in Lansing. All we got is wind, rain, and a little hail. Did you see funnel clouds?

I participated in an outdoor art show Saturday. I had 23 of my photos for sale, 14 framed and 9 just matted. I sold only one, for $45. A lot of people liked them, but they didn't buy. I think my prices were too high.

On Friday, I'm flying to Denver to spend a few days hanging out with my kids - Tom and Amy. We will do some hiking in the mountains.

What have you been doing?
