Cathy,

I don't have a studio, but this weekend I will be participating in an arts and crafts show at the DeWitt Township Community Center. It is from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 tomorrow (Friday) and from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 Saturday. You can see all my stuff there. The Community Center is at 16101 Brook Rd in Lansing.

If you can't make it to the show, you are welcome to come over to the house. Just call first to make sure I am home: 323-3897. The address is 3125 Tecumseh River Road. I do have a few new multiples in black frames.
