

March 25, 2006

They don't have to give up everything. They just have to accept getting paid at the market rate. If GM can get all the workers they need at a lower rate, that is the rate that should be paid. Like I said, we have 318,000 unemployed workers in Michigan. In 2004, there were 622,000 UAW workers nation wide.

--- Debbie Wilson <deberda@yahoo.com> wrote:

> He does make a good point. Why should the workers > give up everything while the big wigs keep pulling > it in. Why don't you address that?
>
> Steve Harry <steve_harry@yahoo.com> wrote: Hi,
>
> I think there is going to be some letters to the > editor in response to my letter about the UAW. One > guy > was nice enough to send me a copy (attached) of his > letter.
>
> Steve
>