Becky,

Yeah, I talked to Mary at Laura's 50th birthday party a couple weeks ago and she seemed fine.

Your trip sounded wonderful. I'd like to go to Africa. Did you see my Escalante National Monument trip pictures (and story) on my website? Carol isn't nearly as adventurous as I am, so we're not likely to be traveling together to any place exotic.

I didn't put them on the website, but I also scanned all of Mom and Dad's trip pictures. I did put them on Mom's computer so she can see them. They traveled to England, Sweden, Russia, Spain, Denmark, China, Austria (twice), Mexico, Guatamala and Haiti. Mom likes to say that Dad had insulin reactions in all the major capitals of the world.

Did you see your grandfather Morey in the Silver Buck pictures? I've got to add captions to the pictures before there is no one left who remembers who those folks are.
