Dear Mom,

We were supposed to go out to dinner with friends New Year's Eve, but we told them we'd been sick, so we postponed until next weekend. Instead, Carol and I went to Finley's and had a nice dinner. I had grilled salmon, she had a combo: a small steak kebob, Hawaiian chicken, and shrimp. It was all very good. Are there any Finley's out your way? There must be in Grand Rapids.

Pretty boring this weekend with so much closed down due to New Years and Gerald Ford's death.

Laura wants to go with me on another Utah canyon trip. We are thinking about the first or second week of April.
