Laura,

Apparently you can't book Southwest flights thru Expedia. I went directly to Southwest's website, and they do have some good flights. See attached. It shows the Lansing to SLC flight I mentioned (its cheaper than it was 2 days ago) plus one flight from Midway to SLC and one from Midway to Las Vegas.

Yes, we will have to rent a car. It cost us $150 last year. Also, another expense: I tipped each of the 3 guides $50 after the October trip.

Carol's daughter Dawn will be here around 8:00 tonight. Her husband is a pilot for Southwest, so I am hoping she has some advice on what type of flight to select. I'll call you around 9:00.
