Alan,

I changed my mind about a nursing career. I don't have the time and energy, don't need the money, and have other stronger interests. Like politics. I've dropped my classes. This means we are again interested in an extended stay in Florida next winter. So if there is any way we could find a place to share, or places near enough to each other that we could hang out together, let's consider it.

I've reserved a space at the Old Town Art Market this Saturday. I'd like to reduce my inventory of framed pictures - and eventually get out of the business.
