Alan,

Have you been to Key West? I'd like to go some time, but wouldn't it be expensive to stay there for more than a day or two? Carol wouldn't mind staying in Clearwater Beach again, but I'm up for something different. Don't know what, though. The St. Augustine area was interesting. Somewhere near Miami would put us close enough to visit the Everglades.

I am thinking about running against Joan Bauer, our state representative. I am working on my campaign website.

Maybe we can meet for dinner Saturday or Sunday.
