Kathy [Ford-Brenniman],

The primary is not until August, but I am running against a popular incumbent, so I'll need a head start. I am running as an anti-union Democrat. Tough sell, don't you think?

I remember you and Gary are the ones who had trouble finding the location of the reunion, then thought you were over-dressed and had to run home to change. Right?

We won't be getting to South Haven as much because my mother moved to an assisted living home in Grand Rapids. But sister Laura Barden and brother Walter are still there.
