Hi,

Carol and I visited Mom today and she seemed happy and lively. Maybe she's finally adjusted to her new home. We took her over to Megan's and spent an hour or so with Megan and Kate. Mom is now interested in getting some more furniture for her room. On our next visit, we'll take her shopping for furniture - maybe a loveseat. We got the loveseat and sofa for our downstairs family room in Grand Rapids a couple years ago.
