[To Deb]

I just got a check for $10,000 from Mother. I assume you did too. She said nothing about it while we were there yesterday. I called her this morning. She says that she got money from Rich and Laura when they sold the old Brooks farm.

Mom has decided she doesn't want any more furniture. She likes the space. She mentioned that she might want to get a folding chair that she could bring out when she has company.

She seemed happy and lively yesterday. She knows a lot of people there, but few names.
