Lois,

Sorry Tom is feeling poorly, and sorry you can't make it. Shirley can't either, and I haven't heard from Ted. Shirley has got family visiting.

I wrote Tama and asked her to pay another third of the cost of the FOIA, and she consented. So it is she who will have paid 2/3 of the bill, and maybe we should leave it at that. It was her idea, she's got the materials, and she can certainly afford it.
