Tama,

I think we need to do a good write-up of all our concerns and send it to the Board. I could help with that. We could also revive the Mersdirt website and put it all out there. I have, in fact, started putting together a new Mersdirt, but it exists only as part of my website, www.stevharrysite.com. Click on the link "Mersdirt".

I am in Clearwater Beach, Florida. Will be back about Feb. 4.
