Dear Tom,

Sounds like you had a really horrible trip home. Hope things have improved now that you are there.

Jenny had her baby last week - a boy. It was a Ceasarian delivery, but she is OK. They named him Dru. Drew? I don't know how it's spelled.

Amy says she has been seeing a guy, a 20 year old junior from Birmingham, Michigan. He is half Pakistani.

Nothing much going on here. Mostly watching the war on TV and reading about it in Newsweek and the newspaper. It's the most interesting mini-series since the Watergate hearings.

I am sending a check for $2600 to G.S.C.E.S. I will also make the payments for the coupons I still have.

Carol says hi.
