Dear Nancy,

When your 88 yrs time flies fast. Finally I am walking quite comfortably and wearing my shoes instead of the Reeboc's I bought when I started walking, 6 weeks in a cast to my knee, a few weeks in a special boot, time in a walker, then a cane. I think it was the janitor who took the Xray in Dunn. The xrays in Fort Wayne clearly showed the break in the heel bone which healed slowly but well. I guess it was strained tendons, ligaments that have made my leg so uncomfortable. Age has its drawbacks.

Lois has two granddaughters which I am enjoying. They live nine miles away so we see them quite often. Colleen is 2 years and Courtney 5 months. I always have loved babies and Courtney is a health, happy one.

I hope your family can be with you for Christmas. We expect Jack & Lois' kids.

with love
Aunt Elva.
