Dear Shirley. Just a note this time again. I am at Eleanors. came this morning was here Tues + Wed. Had to go home to get Hall ready for club yesterday the program my assignment for year. Had a good one. Public Speaking Night. School class put on two plays which were very good.
I wish we could have come for exhibition but impossible.
Maybe sometime we can make it for something.

Eleanor keeps about the same & little better this morning.
Her treatment at hospital didn't seem to do a bit of good. Will just have to wear it out & guess. Alice Pagano was here yesterday. Said she was just the same for nine weeks when they forced her to get up and about.

Eleanor keeps in good spirits which helps wonderfully.

Say what you will I still believe I am a better housekeeper than Dad.
Luckily Bob has been down town all week so there hasn't been much cooking to do.

If you don't hear anything you know everything is coming along as well as usual.
