Mon. morning.

Dear folks. This is a nice June morning Has been like this for the last ten days.
Hard to believe it is Feb.

Dad is doing the breakfast-dishes.
He does most of the dishes. In fact I do less and less house work. I do more skilled labor. you know how it is; then I hate to have him get sick from lack of exercise.

Have finished three sun suits The boy's shirts are done excepting buttons for Jim's. Nina's button box gives down pretty well but we have to wait till we go down town.

Have an apron cut out to do today Nina is making another shirt and blouse for Susah out of scraps of a shirt and blouse she has made for herself. They will be just alike She says they will wear them at the first family gathering. She know she doesn't need them but the only way to use the scraps is making things for little girls. They will come hardly going to school next year.

We know that James Davis, of Dainger is in the hospital. It said minor. I hope very much so.

The flowers were a nice thought and just what I like.

I told about Dad's birthday in some of the letters.

We like the young minister here so well. Can't be any older than Don, looks younger but can he preach.

I like better tho to be with all the folks
I know.

I thought I would get my club paper ready while here but my books are all home. Probably wouldn't use them much but it is a good excuse to put it off. The days go by in a hurry.

So much pleasuring with Nina home and the baby furnishes a lot of amusement.

They have been busy house hunting Have have about decided to build.

One place we looked at yesterday they liked the lot real well but utilities won't be out there for three months.

Nina does hate to wait but I wouldn't be surprised if they did. This place has trees. Most of the ~~other~~ subdivisions are bare. I spelled that as Bob used to. So many houses being built I would think they would reach the saturation point soon.

Have I written you since Jimmie letter. That was a good letter.

Granddad will probably put it with his treasures in the black box.

The sun is so hot through the window I have to pull the drapes am writing on the machine table the machine hasn't ~~to~~ been put away since we have been here.

This is an easy house to live in.
Clean but not overly orderly. You can do very much as you please.

Coozie must have gotten over her mad. Stibbie items in two papers.

I must write to Vera. Hope the operation was a success. I see you have had snow. I dreamed about that time of wading to mailbox in snow to my waist. Do you suppose it was telepathy will be seeing you soon, Mom.
