

Shirley. I think Nina must have just made a mistake and written Bob's name because he had a five dollar check from her yesterday. I didn't know that he had written to her. It seems he is very concerned about the clothes for the Prom, and is borrowing the money. I'll indorse the check and send it back. It looks like you would have to draw on the Ward money for tuition. The book hasn't come. I'll try to get it as soon as possible.

About Harold - if I were you I would go a bit slow. You may tire of him in a little while and if so it will be lots easier to break off. I do want you to go on to school and teach at least two years and not become too serious over some man and then spend the rest of your life wishing you had finished last change with more age and education.

He may be the answer to a maidens prayer but I am thinking the car has a lot to do with it and at least do take a little time to find out.

Please, I beg of you, don't write every day

I know no young person ever takes an older person advise but one cant help giving it. sometimes just finished the evening and must get lunch.

Mom.

I won't write again this week unless something comes up to tell you.
