Tom,

The weekend of June 1(?) should be OK. I don't have a calendar. We just got into our new office building yesterday at noon. We'd been off since last Monday. My boxed up stuff hasn't arrived yet.

Last weekend, I drove up north and did some hiking along the Manistee River and in the Nordhouse dunes north of Ludington. I found out that running doesn't get you in shape for hiking.

Carol is still in New York. She returns home on Friday.
