Tom and Kelli,

I never sent Maui pictures? If not, I'm sorry. Attached is a TV Photo Viewer album with a few of them. I also attached a narrative compiled from emails I sent from Maui. Carol and I finally did drive all the way to the top of Haleakala Crater - on the last day we were there.

We went to South Haven on Thanksgiving and had dinner at the Barden's with Laura's family, Cindy, Walt and Susan, and my mom. In the morning before we went, I ran a 5K. I'd been working hard all summer to improve my speed, and wanted to see how fast I could do a 5K. I did pretty good even though we were running on snow and ice. On Friday, we had another get-together with Carol's family.

Carol is flying to Las Vegas Thursday for a 3-day training session on Neuromodulation Technique. It is a new treatment that cures just about everything without actually doing much of anything. Magic. She is still working at Haslett Schools, so we've agreed that if she earns the money, she can spend it as she wishes.

I created a website to attack my former employer. It is www.mersdirt.com. I am trying to instigate a regime change.

How are you doing? Are you coming for Christmas?

Steve
