

April 18, 2005

Alan,

Remember when we were at Grand Art Supply I had you write down some info on an event in Old Town June 4? I got some more information. The fee is $10, and for that they reserve you a space and provide a 6' table. Sounds like an easy way to try to sell some photos, although I don't know how we'd display pictures on a table. For $10, we could each have our own table.

I also found on the Web a place where you can upload a photo, select your matting and frame, and have them put it all together for you. You can also order just the frame, all assembled, and it appears to be considerably cheaper than $12 a foot. Unfortunately, the picture I'm ready to frame is an odd size, so I'll probably have to order a custom frame from O'Leary.

Steve