

December 23, 2005

Amy,

We got the package today. Thanks. I've had 3 of the Ghiardelli chocolates already. We had planned to have Carol's kids here tomorrow, but 2 families have members who've been sick. We may move the party until Monday, but then Dayna and her family won't be able to make it because of another party. We are going to South Haven on Sunday.

We've been shopping for a new couch and love seat for the downstairs. The stuff we have is faded and never was very comfortable. We bought it when we moved in 16 years ago.

Love, Dad

--- "Amy Harry <camunda@comcast.net>" <camunda@comcast.net> wrote:

> I'm glad you like the book. I also sent a package, > which you should be getting soon . . . I hope! I > forgot to say Priority, but I hope they assumed.
>
> My email is camunda@comcast.net.
>
> I leave for Crestone tomorrow. I'm riding with > someone. It will be nice to have company, but I'm > such a control freak--I wish she'd let me drive, but > she wants to drive. Which means I'll be stranded > once I'm there, but, everything is happening at the > same place. And hopefully if I need to go into town, > someone can take me.
>