Cindy,

We have visited the galleries in Pentwater, and I have hiked the Silver Lake dunes. I started on the side that is open to dune buggies and headed away from the noise, and I could still hear them when I got all the way across to the other side. Too bad - they are so beautiful with Silver Lake there. That was a long time ago.

Yes, I have taken some pictures along the Manistee River, but nothing outstanding. Maybe with fall colors and interesting clouds...
