Glad you liked them. I wrote a story about the trip and included a bunch of pictures. It is on my website, www.stevharryssite.com. I am in the process of revising it to include some of Chuck's photos. He had almost as many as I did. Some are better versions of mine, and some I didn't have at all. I hope to have the revision done in a week. By the way, I like your paintings. Such great color!
