Shirley,

Thank you for your support. Sorry you are in Florida - Peter and I are going to try to get the old gang together at Houlihan's for the first time in ages. When you get back, let me know and we will do it again.

Where exactly are you in Florida? I know it's on the Atlantic side. Carol and I have made trips to Florida 3 winters in a row, but we may not get there this year. Carol has had health problems. Her doctor just put her on blood pressure medication.

Yeah, I come out looking more like a Republican than a Democrat, except I'm pro-choice and for gay marriage.
