Louie, Steve

But things are very good between Louie & I. I had quit drawing myself to believe I'd ever find anything this good. Now if we can just have about 30 more years . . .

The job seems like it's already cost $6 million. I didn't mind managing a virtual of the failed project so well on the Civil Service mid-management year.

So chances of advancement are nil for another year.

I Saudi best card
but I got this one instead.

Anny has no job, all ^{her} time & pa are giving her a free ride. She gets good grades, but she is a decipite rotter than a student & her bachelors degree will be worth less as Toms. I plan to cut my contributions at the end of this school year. I've done enough.

and delivered to dictionaries! Third week he delivered Monday, had car trouble Tuesday, & borrowed car the rest of the week.

Dear Deb,
I don't know your new last name! Does it feel different being married? Carol + I are about it no longer makes Carol's students start talking to talk about it + now - talking about it no longer makes Carol's students get a Churchill annual meet. The pain is quite about it, because although Carol's three was first, last summer, they still have to just recently, when her ex found himself a new woman his sorties about Carol doesn't feel responsible for him anymore. If his new romance doesn't work, Carol's pretty much over for her, but she does a new woman his sorties about Carol's new romance doesn't work for him anymore. Tom quit his waiter job and is paddling big after-school dictionaries. He drops them off at business events - I assume because he can get in the door - and comes back a few days later, hoping they'll wait several weeks. He was sure next week a week of them. He was sure next week a week a month. So he started by taking a -week vacation. Second week he had car trouble a week, so he started by taking a -week a week.

Carol is feeling better because she has records with her parents. The been records with her parents. Tom quit his waiter job and is paddling big after-school dictionaries.
