Dearest Eleonore,

Well we got back all ok, never made a miss turn all the way it was just six o'clock. Say!
You better send me a damn good picture, because my room mate, brought a picture of his girl and it is just about two foot square, and in a glass frame. I think the frame is better than the picture. Looks sorta funny to me. These guys will have to turn all their pictures toward the wall when I get home.

It snowed and blawed all the way here and it is 2 below zero was waiting on the corner when I got to his place.

I wouldn't have missed my weekend home for ten bucks. You know it makes one feel good to see one of his very good friends again after not hearing from her for nine days. Well I haven't been here long enough to think of any thing to say yet so I guess I will wind this up. I hope you are well and full of ~~joy~~ ^{love} sorry I had to leave so soon. I'll be back Sunday and I will make up to it, I love you so much. O.S. When I got home Dad said Grandpa Macross was sick & a bed. I just read Dad's letter but haven't got yours yet.

Thank

I forgot something. When Adolph opened his suit Case he found a Corn Cob Pipe and a Corn Cob in it.
His brother-in-law sent it in for a job.
It looks about a hundred years old.
Send that picture and don't forget
