Dear Eleanor,

I don't know who is supposed to answer which letter first but I guess I had better tell what I have been doing and ask about you. are you back to your old self yet, teaching school the same as ever and tearing around, or won't Mrs. Osborn let you go out any more? If she tries to tell you what to do, tell her she is an old buzzard. (I don't mean that) tell her something else.

I got your letter wed. when did you get mine? The pictures are good, but if I didn't know you pretty good I wouldn't know who that is behind the glasses, where did you get those anyway. say are girls afraid of cats and gawns or what is there about them that girls like? chere and Juise have pictures just like yours.

Yesterday I was judging canna and an old foal hooked me in the belly and tore a big hole in my jacket. When I got home I showed it to Mrs. Hoffner and she insisted on sewing it so d. let her. and before she got done d. had her sewing room table and belt loops on my pants.

when d. got home to night d. went over to the garage where my car is. to see if it was still there. It was but d. couldnt unlock the door so d. cant drive it. d. cant anyway because d. havent my license.

d. got a letter from ma to day and she said that Ora had an attack of ^{jaundice} jaundice.
d. thought she could take it, but d. believe you are the tougher one yet. Ma told me d. would have to write and spell better if
d. wrote any letters to you, but d. havnt had any corrections yet. d. guess she dont know how you write and spell in your letters, but they satisfy me to the best.

Love Deto

P.S. every time d. look at these pictures d. have to look twice to see if they are the same person. The dress looks familiar.

Tell me some news.

Have you see Mr. and Mrs. Wickij
I sent them a card but didnt hear from them
