Dearest and Bestest's Eleanor,

I left your valentines and papers at Kendall's filling station, darn sorry that I didn't get them home to you but couldn't. I told dad to get them. Maybe you won't need them if it keeps on snowing.

Well I finally got back to school. I whistled and sang all the way. missed one turn and got there just the same. sneaked in front of two trains and just missed a radiator of another car. By that time I began to think and I said if I had you with me I would have been more careful. I went on and picked up a fellow and girl from Sogomaw. They were just about frozen to death. But I thawed them out. almost had them sneating.

I got here in time for two classes and they set me to judging and identifying potatoes that I never saw before. In the next class I had to judge a bunch of sheep and get up in front of the class and explain my feelings.

I didn't hear from my room mate.
tried to call him twice and then just off and left him. (What would you have done)

I saw Cal Wheeler when I went to Benton Harbor, he was trying to throw out some water pipes.

I just finished shaving, taking a bath and changing my clothes. I feel look and act much better than before.

I guess I had better go to ~~the~~ supper because I haven't had my dinner yet and it is six o'clock.

Salony SPORT
With Love Veto.
