Dear Eleanor,

If the weather permits I will be home either Friday night or Saturday sometime. If you are going home over to Comptons, I can come and see you at either place can't I? I am asking you. If I come Friday it will be late at night, or if Saturday it will be in the forenoon. I am trying to get Irene to meet me at Grand Rapids and come home so we will all be together once more.

I got a letter from Ma this morning and she said Dad had a new Delux Ford Cedar. He is blaming himself it isn't he. I guess I will have to trade my Ford in on a new one if I want to keep up with him.

Yesterday I had my pictures taken for the Short Course book. I got my suit and over coat cleaned and it looks quite a lot better than it did the last time you saw it.

I had a Coincidence to-day, the fellow that sets on either side of me has a birthday the same day as mine and both of their names start with H.

How is this for a rhyme

Pal O' Mine

That Pal O' mine makes earth to me a very pleasant place to be Each little joy we share, Sickenise each little woe and care.
The joys we enter with a rill
The woes but draw us closer still. Now what's the use of asking "who"? You know that Pal O' Mine is I am ever
Love Pal Bet
