Tuesday Night

Dear Eleanor,

The clock just struck one, this is the latest I have been out since it was with Fay on the bridge. I have been to the show with the rest of the family except John and Lanie. John had us locked out when we got home. There were two shows bright. Joe Brown in Sam's of Lums and Shipmates Foener, they were both down good.

It is thundering and lightning out but hasn't rained here yet. I have been cutting hay all day so it can rain on it for all I care. Slim and John Tripp came in the show and sat down in front of us.

Say: What nationality are you in those picnic pictures anyway.

The one where you are standing is not bad, but where you are sitting on the grass is just swell, don't you think? I have the other one on my dresser. it's still better than this one and enlarged to. I don't think you know how to take pictures by the way you took mine, but Mae that is all you wanted.
Wait till you see the other one of you. I'll bet no one else has as good a one of you as I have, anyway I hope not. I don't think you will want any of these pictures so please send them back, especially those three of you. I can't think of anything else to say to night.

Good night sweetheart.

I love you always.
